Course Alterations Report for March 2001

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Code</th>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Alteration Requested</th>
<th>Reason for Change</th>
<th>Effective Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>MTEC</td>
<td>480(new)</td>
<td>Change in credit hour and minor change in course description</td>
<td>Change 3 hour course to a 2 hour lecture course and 1 hour laboratory, consistent with other similar courses in MTEC.</td>
<td>200105</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
|              | 280(old)    | Old Course Description:
MTEC 480. Clinical Immunology, 3 Hr, MTEC students only. Lectures and laboratory practice in the principles of Clinical Immunology and their relationship to clinical laboratory technology.
New Course Description:
MTEC 480. Clinical Immunology, 2 Hr, MTEC students only. Lectures in the principles of immunological and serological procedures, immunological diseases, and significance of laboratory methods for diagnostics. | | |
| NSG          | 625(new)    | Change in course title and addition of prerequisite | Changes consistent with the goals of the MSN program for preparation of family nurse practitioner. | 200201          |
|              | 336(old)    | Old Course Description
Primary Care: Clin Diagnosis Across Lifespan: S. 3 HR. PR: NSG 622
Introduction to the knowledge and skills basic to the assessment of health status, diagnosis, treatment, and evaluation in the advanced practice of nursing.
New Course Description
Primary Care: Rural Families 1: S. 3 HR. PR: NSG 622 and NSG 624 Introduction to the knowledge and skills basic to the assessment of health status, diagnosis, treatment, and evaluation in the advanced practice of nursing. | | |
| NSG          | 635(new)    | Change in course title | Changes consistent with the goals | 200208          |
|              | 660(old)    | Old Course Description | | |
Spec Crse: Rural Family Health: 4 HR, PR: NSG 625
Application of the theoretical foundations of advanced practice nursing in rural family health care; management of care for prevention, intervention, and evaluation.

New Course Description

Primary Care: Rural Families 2: 4 HR, PR: NSG 625
Application of the theoretical foundations of advanced practice nursing in rural family health care; management of care for prevention, intervention, and evaluation.

of the MSN program for preparation of family nurse practitioner.