NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES 2000-2001 CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Native American Studies: 15 hours from a NASC-approved list of courses including three required courses NAS 100, NAS/English 81 and NAS/History 164. The remaining courses must come from the following list: HIST 147, 155, 156; SOCA 138, 159; NAS 191, 194 and 290. At least nine hours must be from the upper division level. Only graded courses (no P/F) can count toward the minor. Students must have a “C” or better in each course that is counted toward the minor. No more than 3 hours of independent study may count toward the minor.

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES PROPOSED DESCRIPTION

Native American Studies: 18 hours. Three lower division required courses: NAS 200, English 156 and History 264 (9 hours); and three upper division courses selected from: COMM 316, ENGL 356, POLS 355, SOCA 358, SOCA 359, SOCA 405, NAS 493, NAS 495 (9 hours). Students may not count more than 3 hours of NAS 495 toward the minor. Students must have a "C" or better in each course counted toward the minor. Of the upper division courses listed, English 356 and NAS 493 are wholly focused on Native Americans; the other courses have a partial focus on Native Americans.

This minor will be under the control of the faculty who serve on the Native American Studies Committee (NASC), a standing committee of the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences. NASC Faculty will approve all changes in the requirements for the minor. The faculty member serving as the NASC Curriculum Coordinator (or the NASC Committee Chair) will serve as the contact person for any needed official communication regarding the minor. Students seeking approval to count courses from other institutions in the minor would contact the Curriculum Coordinator for permission. The Curriculum Coordinator (or the NASC Chairperson) also will approve, in writing, all requests for independent study and field experiences under the NAS prefix. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences will be the official liaison between the NASC and A&R for scheduling purposes. Minor Code: U038
